

What's Developing

If your business or organization has business cards or pamphlets at the Information Center you may need to restock them. Twenty Welcome Bags were recently made for people new to the community so many of those printed materials were depleted.

Any business or organization that would like to have materials in the brochure and business card holders are invited to place them there free of charge.

Wanda Jundt