

What's Developing

The next batch of Welcome Bags is being assembled. These are given to people new to the community to welcome them to Eureka and to let them know all of the things that are available to them.

All businesses are invited to have their brochures, business cards, and promotional items in the bags.

If you would like your business items in the bags, drop them off at the Information Center. Twenty bags are being assembled.

Wanda Jundt