

What's Developing

Businesses are encouraged to wear their Rooster Rush t-shirts during pheasant hunting season to welcome hunters to the area.

For several years the Eureka Community Development Company has offered the community a limited number of free t-shirts received from a grant from the SD Dept. of Tourism. There are still some t-shirts available in sizes small through extra-large at the ECDC office. These are available on a first come basis to Eureka businesses.

Wanda Jundt